

December 18, 2019

Fiera Real Estate is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Dimakarakos as Managing Director and Head of Debt Strategies. Peter will focus on growing the CORE Mortgage Fund ($80M AUM) and further developing our investment platform to include a suite of real estate debt strategies of interest to our investors.

With 24 years of experience in commercial real estate, capital markets and private equity across various roles, Peter has originated, executed and syndicated more than $25 billion in financing for publicly traded, sponsor-owned and privately owned real estate companies, including construction, acquisition, high-yield, mezzanine, and mortgage financings. Peter joins us from Trez Capital where he was a Senior Vice President and Head of Origination – Toronto. There, he led the origination team for Eastern Canada (Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, and the Maritimes), and the Northeast US.

Prior to joining Trez Capital, Peter held senior progressive positions in Toronto and New York with several leading financial firms, including CIBC Capital Markets and Banc of America Securities. He started his career at Scotia Capital and holds an MBA from Queen's University School of Business as well as an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from York University.