

The appointment of Jeff Killip, Executive Director, Debt Strategies

Toronto, 11 June 2020: Fiera Real Estate is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeff Killip to the position of Executive Director, Debt Strategies.

In this role, Jeff will work with the Debt Strategies team to continue to grow Fiera Real Estate's debt capabilities and product offerings. Among his responsibilities, Jeff will be involved in the development of new product offerings, capital raising, loan origination, structuring and underwriting, as well as portfolio management.

Jeff joins from TD Securities where he held increasingly senior roles and was responsible for a diverse North American real estate client base. At TD Securities, Jeff managed a multi-billion dollar loan portfolio across all asset classes, including office, retail, industrial, multi-residential, hotel, self-storage, mortgage investment corporations, and homebuilding & land development. Prior to this, Jeff worked at CIBC World Markets covering corporate real estate clients across Canada and the United States.
